

Mercy

A town stock is ready for a guilty person. Beside it, the table holds good fruit, not rotten produce to throw. The sentence was real. The gift is real too.

Before you gather

- Read Day 3, Mercy, in The Visual Gospel. Do not reteach the essay.
- Read Jonah 4:1–2, 10–11 in your Bible. The excerpt below is only a backup.
- Your people should already have answered the day's reflection questions. Do not ask those again.

- Leave with a name. The missional challenge only works if someone is named before you pray.

1 · ICEBREAKER · 7 MIN

Open the room

Tell about a time you braced for a consequence and got kindness instead. One sentence. You can pass.

Leader. Keep it light and short. The devotion already asked about “radical mercy” in depth. Do not turn the icebreaker into that journal question. Say that passing is allowed, especially the first few weeks.

2 · THE WORD · 8 MIN

See it, then say it

IF YOU NEED THE WORDS

Say: In that square, everyone knows what the guilty person deserves. Mercy does not pretend the stocks were a joke. Mercy withholds the punishment and sets a feast where the rotten fruit would have been.

DEFINITION, FROM THE BOOK

Mercy is God’s compassionate withholding of deserved judgment and His tender action toward helpless sinners. It is God’s desire to relieve the consequences of sin in those who deserve condemnation through Christ’s sacrifice.

IN THE ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

Greek eleos — mercy, kindness, goodwill toward the afflicted.

MEMORY VERSE · 1 PETER 1:3

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! According to his great mercy, he has caused us to be born again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

Together, open the flashcard for Mercy. Say the word, the definition, and the verse once. Then put the phone away.

3 · OPEN THE BIBLE · 15 MIN

Jonah 4:1–2, 10–11

Jonah is not in the day's reflection questions. He is angry that God showed mercy. That anger is still in most rooms, aimed at somebody.

But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. And he prayed to the LORD and said, "O LORD, is not this what I said when I was yet in my country? That is why I made haste to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that you are a gracious God and merciful, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love, and relenting from disaster." And the LORD said, "You pity the plant, for which you did not labor, nor did you make it grow... And should not I pity Nineveh, that great city, in which there are more than 120,000 persons who do not know their right hand from their left, and also much cattle?"

Have two readers if you can. Bibles open. The excerpt is only here so a forgotten Bible does not stop the night.

From the passage

1. Jonah can quote God's mercy perfectly. What is his actual problem with it? CORE

Leader. He wants mercy for himself and judgment for Nineveh. Right theology, wrong joy.

2. God compares Nineveh to the plant Jonah pitied. What is God saying about the value of people Jonah had written off?

Leader. Jonah grieved a plant. God grieved a city. Mercy sees persons, not categories.

4 · AROUND THE ROOM · 20 MIN

A conversation this chapter did not assign

3. 1 Peter 1:3 ties mercy to a new birth and a living hope, not only to a canceled penalty. What did mercy do for us, beyond "not getting in trouble"? CORE

Leader. Mercy is not God looking the other way. It causes new life through the resurrection.

4. James 2:13 says mercy triumphs over judgment. How can a church show mercy without pretending sin is small? Use the drawing if it helps: stocks still standing, fruit on the table.

Leader. Both have to stay in the picture. Mercy that denies the sentence is sentiment. Sentence without mercy is not the gospel.

5. Who is your Nineveh — a group you quietly hope will “get what’s coming”? You do not have to name them. What would good fruit, instead of rotten fruit, look like toward them this week?

Leader. Push for a practice: a conversation, a prayer, refusing a slur, a meal. Not a vague “be nicer.”

5 • SAY IT • 5 MIN

In one sentence

Mercy is God not giving us the judgment we had earned, and giving us life instead.

Ask for two volunteers, not the whole circle. They may look at the sentence, then try it without looking. Clumsy and true is the goal.

6 • THIS WEEK • 5 MIN

Missional challenge

Before next week, carry this word to someone far from Jesus — a neighbor, a classmate, a coworker, a friend. Do it with a real action and with a true sentence. Name the person before you pray.

Where you would keep score with someone who does not follow Jesus — a sharp reply, a cold shoulder, a story told to their disadvantage — withhold it. Then tell them that mercy is God not giving us the judgment we had earned, because of Jesus.

Leader. Mercy is not pretending a wrong never happened. It is refusing to be the one who finishes them. Next week, before the icebreaker, take one minute. Who went, and what happened? One sentence. No speeches.

7 • PRAY • 8 MIN

Leave silence between these

1. Thank God that your group is not outside His mercy.
2. Confess Jonah's instinct: mercy for me, payback for them.
3. Ask for one concrete act of mercy before you meet again.

Before you stumble

If someone asks the difference between mercy and grace, give it in one sentence and move on: mercy withholds the punishment we deserve; grace gives the feast we could never earn. Next week is the feast. Do not preview it for ten minutes.

WITH STUDENTS

Ask where students see “you get what you deserve” treated as the highest justice — online, in sports, at school. Then ask whether they want God to run the world only that way, including toward them.

IF YOU STILL HAVE TIME

Luke 6:35–36. Jesus tells disciples to be merciful as the Father is merciful, including toward the ungrateful. Read it only if the Jonah conversation is still thin.
