

Repentance

A U-turn sign beside a road that was heading the other way. Repentance is not feeling bad in the same lane. The sign is an instruction to turn around.

Before you gather

- Read Day 26, Repentance, in The Visual Gospel. Do not reteach the essay.
- Read Luke 19:1–10 in your Bible. The excerpt below is only a backup.
- Your people should already have answered the day's reflection questions. Do not ask those again.

- Leave with a name. The missional challenge only works if someone is named before you pray.

1 · ICEBREAKER · 7 MIN

Open the room

When did a wrong turn cost you real time, and how long did you argue with the map before you turned around?

Leader. Delay and pride. Do not ask them to inventory godly sorrow or to attack “easy believism.” Both are the book’s questions. Say that passing is allowed, especially the first few weeks.

2 · THE WORD · 8 MIN

See it, then say it

IF YOU NEED THE WORDS

Say: Jesus’ first sermon puts two words together: repent and believe. A change of direction and a trust in the news. Tears can be real. The sign in the drawing is about the road, not only the feeling.

DEFINITION, FROM THE BOOK

Repentance is the turning of a sinner away from sin and toward God, involving a change of mind, heart, and direction of life.

IN THE ORIGINAL LANGUAGE

Greek metanoia — a change of mind that turns the whole person.

MEMORY VERSE · MARK 1:15

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel.

Together, open the flashcard for Repentance. Say the word, the definition, and the verse once. Then put the phone away.

3 · OPEN THE BIBLE · 15 MIN

Luke 19:1–10

Zacchaeus turns in public, in his money, the same day he is welcomed. You can see the U-turn. You are not asking the group to confess a secret sin out loud.

He entered Jericho and was passing through. And behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector and rich. ... And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for I must stay at your house today." ... And Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor. And if I have defrauded anyone of anything, I restore it fourfold." And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house... For the Son of Man came to seek and to save the lost."

Have two readers if you can. Bibles open. The excerpt is only here so a forgotten Bible does not stop the night.

From the passage

1. Who moves first — Zacchaeus climbing, or Jesus calling? What does Zacchaeus do after Jesus comes to the house? CORE

Leader. Jesus seeks and calls. Zacchaeus responds with joy and with a costly turn: generosity and restitution. Repentance is response to a Seeker, not a self-improvement project that earns the visit.

2. Jesus calls this "salvation," and He calls Zacchaeus "lost" a moment later, even as a son of Abraham. What was he lost from, if he was already religiously nearby?

Leader. Lost is not only "far from church." A wealthy insider can be lost. Salvation reaches his house, not only his mood.

4 · AROUND THE ROOM · 20 MIN

A conversation this chapter did not assign

3. Mark 1:15 refuses to split repent from believe. What does a so-called faith look like with no U-turn, and what does a turn look like with no gospel to turn toward? CORE

Leader. Faith without turning is a claim. Turning without the gospel is moralism or despair. Jesus holds them together.

4. Acts 3:19: repent and turn again, that sins may be blotted out. Acts 26:20: repent and turn, performing deeds in keeping with repentance. Why is restitution, when it is possible, part of a turn and not a way of paying Jesus back?

Leader. Zacchaeus does not purchase salvation. The welcome came first. The money shows the turn is real. Where payback is impossible, the turn still shows up in confession and a new direction.

5. You do not have to name a sin in this circle. What is the shape of a turn — what would have to change direction, not just be regretted — that you already know about?

Leader. Shape, not spectacle: a habit stopped, a person repaid, a lie corrected, a relationship approached differently. Offer silence. Do not go around the circle demanding answers.

5 · SAY IT · 5 MIN

In one sentence

Repentance is a real turn — mind, heart, and direction — away from sin and toward God, joined to faith in the gospel.

Ask for two volunteers, not the whole circle. They may look at the sentence, then try it without looking. Clumsy and true is the goal.

6 · THIS WEEK · 5 MIN

Missional challenge

Before next week, carry this word to someone far from Jesus — a neighbor, a classmate, a coworker, a friend. Do it with a real action and with a true sentence. Name the person before you pray.

Turn from one pattern people far from Jesus have watched in you — a temper, gossip, a habit, a way you use people. Tell the person who saw it that you are turning, and that the reason is Jesus. Say that repentance is a real change of mind, heart, and direction, joined to faith in Him.

Leader. Help them name the pattern before they leave. “Be nicer” is not a turn. Next week, before the icebreaker, take one minute. Who went, and what happened? One sentence. No speeches.

7 • PRAY • 8 MIN

Leave silence between these

1. Thank Jesus for seeking the lost instead of waiting to be found.
2. Ask for a turn, not only a feeling, where you have been delaying.
3. Pray for a house, like Zacchaeus’s, that needs salvation to arrive.

Before you stumble

Do not turn the group into a confession booth. Do not embarrass anyone. If someone wants to confess something serious, receive it briefly, thank them, and move the rest offline with care. Repentance is not penance: you are not assigning spiritual punishments. It is also not nothing: “easy” agreement with no direction is not Mark 1:15. Hold both without the book’s debate-club tone.

WITH STUDENTS

Ask what a U-turn looks like on a phone: who they stop texting, what they stop watching, who they tell the truth to. Specific beats emotional.

IF YOU STILL HAVE TIME

2 Corinthians 7:8–10, only if someone asks whether sorrow counts. Godly grief produces a turn. Worldly grief produces regret with no road change. They may have read this in the book. Use it as a clarification, not as the main study.
